

Technical Service Controls Engineer

Avure Technologies Inc., the recognized global leader in high pressure technology, is looking for an experienced Technical Service Controls Engineer to join our team in Columbus, OH or Nashville, TN! Relocation may be required.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Install and commission new capital equipment products at customer sites
- Provide remote support for all software and PLC programming issues
- Troubleshoot products in the field and resolve customer issues quickly in a safe and professional manner
- Document changes and updates to ensure proper revision control
- Perform maintenance and service activities at customer site
- Train customers on the proper operation, service, maintenance and fundamental troubleshooting practices
- Test vendor and company products
- Remote support of customers and Field Service Engineers

Qualifications:

- Degree in Electrical Engineering/Electronic Engineering Technology
- 5 years experience in control systems applications (Siemens, Allen-Bradley, GE, etc.)
- Familiar with hydraulic, gas, electrical, mechanical prints/schematics
- Working knowledge of closed loop control circuits, feedback loops, transducer circuits and HMI/SCADA systems
- Strong analytical and documentation skills
- Action oriented, comfortable in a fast paced environment
- Experience working independently at customer sites
- Ability to travel 25% including international

How to apply:

Applications are being accepted using our online application only.

To apply online go to www.hrpsmsi.com/jobs/avuce.htm

www.Avure.com

EOE